Nestled on top of Locke Mountain, Eagle Eyrie is a premiere conference center located on 425 peaceful, wooded acres near the beautiful Blue Ridge Parkway. Just 12 miles from downtown Lynchburg, the conference center is only a short distance away from many tourist attractions and local colleges and universities.

Most lodges provide either single or bunk bed-style accommodations; few lodges have double beds. All lodges are central air-conditioned and heated, have full kitchens (should you want to prepare your own meals), are equipped with living and dining areas large enough to accommodate their capacity, and can handle both guests on different hallways and separate bathrooms. Most lodges have screened porches to enjoy the wooded surroundings as well as views of the mountains.

MEN'S RETREAT

We look forward to the Men's Retreat 2024! Second Presbyterian Church at its foundation has always been a multi-generational church. The retreat is for men of all ages, so all are welcome. It is a great way to relax and unplug for the weekend, engage in discussion about work-life balance, what it is to be a Christian in 2024, and to meet other men of the church. Please consider joining us this November for the Men's Retreat!

ROCK OF AGES: EVOLVING SOUND, EVOLVING FAITH

About the theme:

Over several sessions we will explore together the evolution of Rock N' Roll music starting with the Big Band era, to iconic groups and singers of the 1960s, and on to the present day. As we consider the past, present, and future of popular music, we might just find some very interesting parallels that inform the past, present, and perhaps the future direction of the mainline church in our country. In the words of Sonny and Cher, "The beat goes on" and so, too, does our faith and new expressions of church.

About our Guest Speaker:

Rev. Chris Vogado

has served as Pastor of Salem Presbyterian Church since October 2022. He is a lifelong Presbyterian born and raised in Maryville, TN. Chris earned a BA in Religious Studies from the University of Tennessee and a Masters of Divinity from Columbia Theological Seminary. He served churches in North Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia and Indiana before coming to Salem. Chris is married to Rachel Vogado (also an ordained Presbyterian pastor), has an eclectic taste in music, and enjoys outdoor activities such as kayaking and backyard astronomy.
